MAINE DISASTER.

The Excitement in Town Has Somewhat Abated,

The principal topic of conversation in town during the past week was the Maine disaster, caused by the sensational reports issued by the "yellow journals." Included in that category are to be found one or two in this county. The HERALD exploded one of their canards, to the effect that the members of the National Guard were given orders to be prepared for dury. An interview with fa Miss Daisey Swank, of Ringtown, was bad been issued. The people are now patiently awaiting friends in town to-day.

Washington, D. C., May 24, 1897.

Bear Sirs—I find your Paine's celery compound to lift them out of their constipated, dysperic habit of body.

Paine's celery compound counteracts the exhausting strain of work by its strong inducement to the delicate tissues to take more food. It plainly induces the nerves and brain to feed themselves more liberally, and has thus saved countless men and women from chronic neonalgia, rheumatism, sleeplessness and failing mental power.

No remedy has been discovered so rich in flesh-forning and energy-producing constituents.
